

This is a joke what the FCC is doing. I much rather listen to my xm radio and get the weather and traffic in my area just because thier is no comercials and plus another advantage to listening to my xm is that it is very up to date rather than listening to the radio and it only telling the traffic every 10 to 15 min you do the math alot can happen in 10 or 15 min.

The Ballard Family